1. The Hong Kong Institution of Certified Auditors (HKICA) was established in 2006. It is a non-profit making organization providing services to the quality, environmental, occupational health & safety, food safety, laboratory and other management systems auditing professionals. Its Executive Board comprises members from universities, public authorities, governmental organizations, certification bodies and management systems consultants in Hong Kong.
2. Its primary objectives are:
  - (a) to promote the status of management system auditors to the public as a profession;
  - (b) to establish a local based lead auditors and auditors registration system in accordance with ISO/IEC 19011:2011 and relevant standards and to maintain a database of all registered auditors in the HKICA website for the benefit of the industry;
  - (c) to set up personnel certification schemes for different levels of management system auditors in accordance with the requirements of ISO/IEC 17024:2012 and CNAS-CC03:2014 and IPC-PL-11-006;
  - (d) to deliver auditing related seminars and workshops which are of common interests to local auditing profession;

- (e) to provide a focal point where registered auditors and certified auditors can get together for exchange of experience and knowledge and fostering of future developments in the related professions;
- (f) to liaise with overseas equivalent bodies for reciprocal recognition of auditors certification schemes; and
- (g) to approve auditing and related training courses for recognition by the auditing profession and the public in accordance with the international practice.

3. Background

3.1. Determined to avert the lack of recognition of professional status of auditor locally, a Certification Scheme of Quality Management System Auditor (CSQMSA) was established by HKICA in April 2015 with the following aims:

- (a) to give professional recognition to the auditing practitioners so as to attract and retain talented and skilful personnel to enter into the auditing industry where Hong Kong enjoys clear advantages and has good potential for further development;
- (b) to set benchmarks for the upgrade of expertise and knowledge of the certification personnel;
- (c) to improve the professional image of Hong Kong certification industry and contribute to the building up of brand name for Hong Kong certification services; and
- (d) to become a renowned public personnel certification body in the Asia Pacific Region.

The initial establishment and operation of the Scheme CSQMSA is sponsored by SME Development Fund (SDF) of the Trade and Industry Department.
